How to use this bubble map:
Put your main topic in the center bubble. Start to brainstorm all you know about that topic in the outside bubbles. It's OK to make more bubbles, or to make additional bubbles that branch off of the ones shown. This is a great tool for brainstorming what you know about a topic, and discovering where additional research is needed.